THE DAILY EPITAPH IS the only Daily Newspaper published in Cochise county that takes a regular telegraphic press report and does not use "boiler plate."

THE Governor, being forced by the DAILY EPITAPH to show his hand, makes a clean breast of his actions in the matter of the calling of a constitutional convention, and the showing, instead of improving his position, places him in a still more contemptible light. He is evidently deserving of the scorn and contempt with which, we are informed, he is treated in Phoenix. A careful reading of the plea from the Governor, published simultaneously in the Tucson Citizen and Phoenix Herald, reveals the fact that he did not hesitate to misrepresent the facts of the case to the Department of Justice in the hope of getting an opinion in his favor. But even on a false statement the opinion was against him and he did not dare make it public, but thought to subvert his purpose and accomplish his ends by causing to be published in his organ a lying extract from the various decisions or opinions. By a perusal of the opinion rendered by Assistant Attorney General Geo. H. Shield it will be seen that Woolley, although he did not expressly say so, led Mr. Shield to believe that the Fifteenth legislature began its session on the 6th of January, when in fact it convened on the 21st. No doubt the Department of Justice will feel very kindly toward Woolley when it finds out that it has been cozened into rendering an opinion on a false statement of facts. The point sought to be made by Woolley and his advisers that the law changing the date of the meeting of the legislature is illegal, because it was passed after the sixty days limit, is not well taken and will do them no good. Congress has absolute control over the Territories, and unless the laws passed by a Territorial legislature are disapproved by Congress they stand as legal enactments, and as the law changing the date of convening has never been questioned or acted on adversely by Congress, has been in force for nearly ten years and there not being any question as to its constitutionality, the law is as binding as any act of the legislature passed within the sixty-day limit. The raising of this point after ten years smells very much of police court pettifoggery. Arizona has been cursed with bad officials from abroad in the past, but for mendacity, rascality and general meanness the home product excels anything we have ever had in that line, and is in itself one of the strongest reasons why we should make a desperate attempt to escape from such intolerable thralldom.

It is evident that the Tucson Citizen, judging from its remarks in Saturday's issue, has been imposed upon by the Governor. Herbert, we apologize,

THE Phoenix Arizonan has been changed to a weekly and will hereafter be known as the Rural Arizonan, devoting itself to the development of the agricultural resources of Arizona. It has mapped out a great work for itself, and should receive a liberal support.

It is amusing to see what a gob of gloom and silence struck the papers opposing the statehood movement when the DAILY EPITAPH exposed the true inwardness of Woolley's action in the convention business, and how they all open in full cry when he remarks, "Simon says wigwag."

THE article in Sunday morning's DAILY EPITAPH was not intended to in the least reflect on Mr. Castle, as he was assured when he called at this office. Mr. Castle is an employee of the Board, and if they keep some portions of their transactions from him and then let him sign what is to be published as a correct account of the proceedings of the Board, when such is not the case, he is in no way to be blamed. It is well understood that the attaching of his signature is merely a matter of routine and at the direction of the Board. As Mr. Castle feels aggrieved we make him an apology, but not for any other portion of the article.

A CALL has been issued by the chairman of both the Republican and Democratic Central Committees of Maricopa county for a joint meeting of the two committees to take steps for the calling of a constitutional convention, with the intention of placing a non-partisan, or fusion, ticket in the field. As it is evident that the people will have to take this matter out of the Governor's hands, the DAILY EPITAPH would suggest to the two central committees of this county that they take similar action. The DAILY EPITAPH has always been in favor of a straight Republican ticket, knowing that it would win in this county, but as it is now necessary, by reason of Woolley's action, that in order to hold a convention it must be by a concerted action of the people, this paper now favors a non-partisan movement, and respectfully suggests to Messrs. Emanuel and White that they call a joint meeting of the two committees to take the necessary steps.

THE State Constitutional Convention of Montana completed its work and adjourned about the middle of August. State and county conventions of both parties have been held, the candidates are now before the people, and the election will take place on Tuesday, October 1st. The constitution, which will also be voted upon that day, provides that the first legislative assembly of the new state shall consist of sixteen members of the Senate, (one for each county, regardless of population), and fifty-five members of the House of Representatives. Although there is much criticism on the Senatorial apportionment, particularly in the populous counties, it is generally believed that the constitution will pass. All of the four new states will be important political battle grounds this Fall, and especially is this true of Montana. There are several wealthy Democrats who have U. S. Senatorial aspirations, and the party, under the lead of Chairman Marcus Daly, of the Anaconda Company, is making every effort to elect a Democratic legislature.

Odds on O'Connor.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Odds of three to four were given on O'Connor. Searle won the toss for the position. O'Connor had the best start by half a length. Searle's time was 22.42.

Congressman S. S. Cox is Dying.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The evening papers say Congressman S. S. Cox is dying. Four days ago he was confined to his bed by an attack of malarial fever. This rapidly developed into an acute pneumonia which has defied the best medical skill. Yesterday his physicians gave up all hopes.

Will Have Separate Trials.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Henry S. Ives and his partner Geo. H. Slaynor were brought into court today to be tried for the fraudulent issue of stock on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad. Ives' counsel asked for separate trials. It was decided to try Ives first. The time was fixed for tomorrow.

Admission Day.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Sept. 9.—Admission Day was celebrated here today by the Native Sons of the Golden West. Houses were elaborately decorated and it is estimated that 10,000 visitors were in town. A parade was held this morning in which 3,000 Native Sons took part. The parade was reviewed by Governor Waterman and staff, and Senator Stanford. Literary exercises and banquet followed.

Baltimore Celebrates.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 9.—The six days' celebration of the defense of Baltimore in the war with Great Britain, commenced here today. One of the events celebrated is the bombardment of Fort M'Henry, which inspired the song, "Star Spangled Banner." The whole city is in bunting. Never before in the history of Baltimore has anything like it been seen. There is scarcely a business house or dwelling in the central section of the city but what has been beautifully decorated. In the party which came from Washington were President Harrison, and Secretaries Windom and Tracy. The President was escorted to the reviewing stand along the route and received hearty cheers from all sides.

The Start.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—There were occasional squalls of wind during the progress of the race, and at Surrey Gate the water was slightly lumpy, otherwise the course was good. The start was made at 12.03 with O'Connor rowing at a terrific rate. Searle soon overtook him and gained the lead which he gradually increased. O'Connor frequently looked over his shoulder at his opponent. When the Hammersmith bridge was reached, O'Connor appeared to be a trifle distressed. At the Florycroft iron works both men pulled in good form. A nasty head of wind was blowing but the water in Chiswick beach was not affected. Here Searle was three lengths ahead and the remainder of the race was a procession. O'Connor rowed splendidly throughout the race but seemed to be overtrained.

Searle Wins the Boat Race.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The great race between Searle, of Australia, and O'Connor, the champion oarsman of America, took place on the Thames today and resulted in an easy victory for Searle. The distance was four miles and three furlongs and the race was for one thousand pounds and the championship of the world. O'Connor led at the start but finished two lengths behind.

A Fire in a Rag and Junk Warehouse.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 9.—A fire broke out on the upper floor of McCart's nine story rag and junk warehouse yesterday afternoon. Forty women and girls were employed in the building. Two girls fell from a third story window and are fatally hurt. It is reported that others were caught in the building, but nothing can be learned definitely for several hours. Loss, $10,000.

Dangerous State of Affairs.

WILLCOX, Sept. 9.—Latest information from San Carlos reports a dangerous state of affairs existing in E troop, colored Tenth Cavalry. William Varnum, now under arrest as one of the murderers of W. Fleming at San Carlos, has confessed that an organization, similar to the Mollie Maguires, of which he is a member, is in existence, and that he and three others, Douglas, Wilson and Edwards, were detailed to kill him. Varnum so far has refused to give the names of others of the association, but it is believed he will make a full confession. The facts already elicited are regarded sufficient to insure conviction.

An unprecedented rain occurred here Saturday last doing much damage. Three inches and four-hundredths fell within two hours; four and eighty-seven hundredths inches is the result of rainfall for three hours of September sixth and seventh.

I am satisfied that Cancer is hereditary in my family. My father died of it, a sister of my mother died of it, and my own sister died of it. My feelings may be imagined, then, when the horrible disease made its appearance on my side. It was a malignant Cancer, eating inwardly in such a way that it could not be cut out. Numerous remedies were used for it, but the Cancer grew steadily worse, until it seemed that I was doomed to follow the others of the family. I took Swift's Specific, which, from the first day, forced out the poison and continued its use until I had taken several bottles, when I found myself well. I have not it S. S. S. cured me.
